More Abolitionism.

Then there is Stephen A. Donglas. He is a man Then there is Stephen A. Donglas. He is a man of considerable vigor of intellect, but without honor, honesty, trith, or dignity. He is low-flung. He is a grounding. He is a rowdy. He is of the class of barroom politicians. He is at home with the low and the vulgar. He is uneasy in the company of gentlemen. He electioneers for the Presidency by ancans that would render a county candidate for the Legislature of Kentneky punishabe' by law. As for principle, he has no idea of it. He is at the present time the peoniar candidate of the fillibusters, the aggressives, the manifest destup men; and if he were President he would not hesitate to issue his proclamation to-morrow, authorizing the science of Cuba, all South America, and the whole of Mexico, so he could hope thereby to win appliance for his boldness and andactiy. As President he would ever be arming at something to make manking stare. He would try to offset the climinuities.

No man would atter such vile, low, and base ribaldry about the first statesman now in America who was not at heart an Abolitionist. No better proof of the nigger instinct is needed. It is African all over, and comes well enough from the same hand that made a Roman patriot of a slavo hanged by the laws of Kentucky for killing his master. Douglas fortunately needs no defence against the organ of the groundlings and ruffians of its own party. Stephen A. Douglas is too well known to be affected by such stuff from the pen of a Marat. Douglas, whom the low-flung critic bespatters with its billing-gate, is the acknowledged champion of the only correct and constitutional policy of the country. He is the shining mark at which is harled all the Abolition shafts of the Union. The editor of the Journal in this attack comes to the aid of his black brothren. It is the service they require at his hands, and he performs it with a hearty good will. Douglas is the man North all the Nigger-Worshippers dread, and that their brother Prentice dreads. They expect no compromise or quarter from him, they tell him with a most corroding malignity. At Washington, however, they can't utter such low calumnies as occur in the filthy columns of the Abolition organ in Louisville. When he is expected to speak in the Senate, crowds throng the galleries to hear the giant of that body. The Abolitionists, who have nearly all the talent of the opposition, know the point of attack, and bring all their heavy artillery to it; and any one who has read the debates so far, will see that he is an overmatch for them. His great abilities extort the respect even of a relentless and nuscrapulous opposition. It is only the jackals of Abolitionism such as the editor of the Journal-the kitcher clerks and street scavengers-that atter such low finng abuse as we have quoted from the Journal. It takes an Abolitionist like the editor-a man for the dirty work of Abolitionists-to be guilty of such filthy mendacity.

The reader will see that it is not worth while to go back and trace up the antecedents of the editor of the Journal to prove him an Abelitionist. He The abuse of Douglas, now the champion of the rights of the States—the distinguished leader of the National men in the Congress of the United States-is sufficient to show the designs and purposes of the editor. No Sonthern man can be mistaken in his object. There is no man in the Union so hated and so dreaded by the Abolition party as Stephen A. Douglas. They had not even the decency to hide their ruffian instincts when it was reported he was dangerously ill; the editor of the Journal had suggested the necessity of his death, and his Abolition allies had responded in open rejoicing at the prospect. Thanks to Providence he was restored to health, and as he still lives, the editor of the Journal leads off in the Abolition bowi of abuse and blackguardism. We thought, perhaps, the editor of the Journal would be rather crafty to expose himself in such a manner; but after our exposure of him he thinks it is bluckguardism, it is idle; the admiration of the country is a sufficient refutation of all such lies. They will hurt the author more than the object of all the Abolition malignity of the country.

Let it be borne in mind that the object of this abuse is now the recognized champion of the policy supported by the whole South, and assailed himself responsible elsewhere."

We never were ordained a minister, either at Sand Creek or elsewhere, and any connection of ns with any one is a lie. We never heard this story before on any one we ever saw, and we presume it is a falsehood upon any white man. The lie, however, shows that the editor and his brother Abolition informant are exceedingly hard run to make us responsible for other people's sentiments. The editor and his lying erow can proceed and fix their story on any one they please. The minister, if there ever was such an one, had probably read Prentice's account of the Roman patriot of African blood, who was hung for killing his overseer, Sand Creek or elsewhere, and any connection of can blood, who was hung for killing his overseer,

Whom he and Seward call Aristocrats. ALL MEN HAVE A RIGHT TO LIBERTY, NO MATTER WHAT COLOR. - Journal, of 1544. Speaking of Mr. Clay, he says:

"The struggle was a flerce one, but the advocates of lavery prevailed, and the young champion of liberty as equal rights, who had made the aristocrats tremble or their ancent prerogative, became nnopoular on acount of the part he had acted. PROMISING TO HELP.

We have ever looked forward to the day when Kentucky should contain within her bounds no bondmen, and we hope to live to see the light of such a day.

Many of the best minds of the State are engaged with the subject of emancipation, and they will express freely their opinions and act freely upon them.

We must make up our minds to meet that question, for no human power can stop it.

Journal, Aug. 21, 1845.

We believe there Is a settled conviction in the minds of a large mejority of the people of Kentucky that their interests—social, moral, and tinancial—would be promoted by disposing of the slaves, and we believe that one day they will themselves begin to move in the matter. We await the movement, and shall stand ready to second it whenever our aid can be of any avail.

Journal, Oct. 6, 1845.

"To him [Clay] more than any other individual is to be ascribed the grest revolution which has taken place in public sentiment upon this subject; a revolution whose wheels must continue to move onward till they reach the goal of universal Freedom. A conviction of the expediency and necessity of ultimate emancipation has been spreading farther and farther among on rountrymen, and taking deeper and deeper root in their minds, and trequires not the spirit of prophesy to foretail the end."—Life of Clay, page 22. PRENTICE'S APOLOGY FOR HIS ABOLITIONISM—ON ACCOUNT OF BAD RAISING.

ACCOUNT OF BAD MAISING.

The editor of the Democrat has raked up extracts from our biography of Mr. Clay, written and published upwards of a quarter of a century ago, when we were a citizen of New England, to show, not that we were in favor of abolishing clavery, but that we then thought avery beat thing. Undoubtedly we did think thus of it; we had at tuat time seen no person that thought, or seemed to think, dileteretty. We were educated and brought up from childhood-to regard slavery as an evil wherever it existed, the opposite view of the matter having never been presented to our mind. We do not imagine that, a quarier of a century ago, a man of any par, yor degree could be found in New England who did not think of slavery what we said of it in the biography we wrote. The subject of slavery was not a fitteth part so wen understood there at that time as it is now, and it is not very well understood there now. We outselves, from thinking slavery under all circumstances are evil, have come to think it an evil in oil tes where it is not required, and a good in thos

MEN WHO DENOUNCED ATTACKS UPON SLAVERS -HIS SNEERS AT ANY DEFENCE OF THE INSTITU-TION OF BLAVERY, AND HIS HOPE THAT SOME NORTHERN MAN WOULD KICK ONE OF THE CHIV ALBY, AS HE SNEEBINGLY CALLS SOUTHERN

THE CHIVALRY.—The chivalry went off very tril-iantly a few days ago in Congress. Mr. Burt, of South Jarolina, was the gun of the occasion. He was making chivalrous speech on the sutject of Abuhicon pet-tions, and of course waxed very warm and intensely loquent; amongst others, of burning and blending wine and scorn, in the report of his speech in the In-elligencer, Mr. Burt said:
"He should give just offence to his constituents and with desperate purpose by the whole Abolition power of the country. In the present crisis, the great statesman of the North, who stands with the banner of the Constitution in his hand, against thesewora enemies of the South, is thus assailed in Kentucky. Side by side with Giddings, Hale, and Greeley stands Prentice of the Louisville Journal—the foulest-mouthed Abolitionist of the whole crew.

The One of the ministers, who laid hands on our neighbor when he was ordained at Sand Creek, was subsequently asked, in a discussion in relation to siavery, if he would be willing to see his daughter mary a negro. He said—"Yes, if ahe wishes to do so."

By the chivalry said—'I said, I held myself responsible for my words elsewhere." He here epeated that the gentleman had denounced that the gentleman had denounced the has different diversibility of all said expressions of the first to the person offended to the had spoken diversible that the gentleman had denounced the has different was oftensive, he left it to the person offended to with which he (hir. B.) and his constituents were itemstitution in the middle of which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he had grown up, and one to which the state which he had grown up, and one to which the state which he had grown up, and one to which the state which he had grown up, and o poor Beardaly.

But the chivalry tells Beardaly that it is responsible elsewhere. This is very significant, and calls hy visions of an invitation for pistols and collee for two. But Beardaley, like all other Northern Locas, does not love that way of as justing difficulties. The chivalry is perfectly a gaze not this total. It.

race, and wished, like Prentice, to give them crows over the victory won on Saturday last, with equal rights. How is Prentice on practical amai- about 2,000 votes. Glorious American victory! He says the vote shows a considerable increase in as the applications were made at different times, the strength of the American party since last Au- he succeeded in diddling some half a dozen, some gust. He boasts that foreigners went forward and was the defeat of the Rev. J. H. Heywood for voted the self-styled American ticket. We prefeel delighted with that exploit. It is so like the sixth of August last in Lonisville, and the repman when his heavy stock should arrive, and a party sense. He had done more for the schools the scenes of lawlessness and blood that have by his victims and by the police, who were set upthan any man in the city; in fact, he had done marked contests heretofore. There was not the on his track, nothing has been heard of him, or pretty much all that has been done; but he has slightest security before the election that peace the money of the young gentlemen who permitted never sworn to Sam, and therefore would n't do.

Americans must rule America, in the most sublime

lieve that a close contest would renew the scenes

He represented his name to be H. A. Miller—is would be kept at the polls; but every reason to believe that a close contest would renew the scenes of bloody Monday. That, and a general loathing and disgust at the recollections of the past, produced the small vote of Saturday. The editor says about half the vote of the city was polled.

Perhaps so; but it was not half the vote of Lonisville four years ago. This fact, it would seem, contempt of all qualifications. This single act would disgrace any party but Sam's; his can't be and disgust at the recollections of the past, produced the small vote of Saturday. The editor hair, which he parts behind, dresses in dark, and is it so much the interest of Louisville to show some nterest in her, although they knew they were polls if there had been a contest, can't be told. One party has defended all that was done last August, and have pledged themselves to do the same thing again in the same circumstances. The other fulfilled. They didn't want any more scenes of blood for so small a matter as municipal officos. The naturalized citizens who still remain in Louis ville can't be pursuaded that they would be allowed to vote peaceably. They know the vile they are at the mercy of any worthless boys or miserable vagabonds. They saw the scenes of August last; they were its victims, and they are slow to trust any assurances. Native-born Demerats felt a disgust at a sham election, where there was no security that the guarantees of the laws of Kentucky as to the right of suffrage would be observed : where the law was in the hands, or rather liable to be overridden, by ruffians and scoundrels, and their deeds justified again by the ci authorities. It may perhaps be interesting to those who have business transactions with the city of Frankfort, to know that the Commonwealth has acknow ledged that the Capital Hotel, and other available property of the city, is under mortgage to Col. A gontleman from the interior of the State asks as if the public buildings of the city belong to the Know-Nothing party. He says he noticed npon the Union engine house a flag with the names of Fillmore and Donelson inscribed upon it. This is but another of the innumerable dirty ricks the Know-Nothing party resort to to manufacture public sentiment in behalf of their almost deserted leaders. Is it not an outrage upon the Democratio tax-payers of the city to witness such misuse of their funds, as to erect engine houses for the purpose of floating in the breeze streamers

[For the Louisville Democrat.] At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Public School last night, after the regular business had been finished, W. W. Resolved, That this Board highly appreciate the constant, untiring and efficient labors of the Rev. John H. Heywood in the cause of Public Education in this city, and the thanks of this Board are tendered to him for his invaluable services as President during the year just closed.

Mr. Heywool, in reply, expressed his thanks to the Board, and stated that the interest which he had in the cause of Public Education was not the growth of a year, or two or three years, but that from the time when he first came to our city, cause of Public Education; that this arose, in some respect, from the fact that he himself had learned the preparatory rudiments of an education in a public school; and that he had always felt that the only manner, or the most proper manner, in the only manner, or the most proper manner, in which he could return this benefit was by assisting, with all the means in his power, the cause of onblic instruction. Mr. H. further alluded to the ecent establishment of the male and female high dren." chools, and spoke flatteringly of the prosposts of Public Education. He hoped in time to have high schools in our city that would compare favorably with those of Philadelphia and New York. Mr. H., in conclusion, alluded touchingly to the many and pleasant associations which had grown up in a long intercourse between himself and the nembers of the Board of Trustees and the teachers, and thanked them for their uniform kindness. There were many other things which the genleman tonched upon that we would be happy, if our space admitted, to lay before the public. We have only sketched very briefly the outlines of his emarks. They were, in their general tone and bearing, just such as we would expect from a genleman of his known character and high reputaion. The loss which the canso of education in the removal of Mr. H. from a position which he so ably sustained, is already beginning to be acnowledged by the bitterest proscriptionist of the Know-Nothing party, and will be still more so when, by contrast, his arduons labors begin to be more fully and thoroughly appreciated. Paroquet Springs! From an advertisement in our paper to-day, it will be seen that this beautiful watering place is about to be opened once more to the public. All Lonisville will rejoice at this announcement .-Louisville needs just such a place of resort in the Summer months as the Paroquot Springs afford, and all the city will flock to them when opened sed : the natural beauty of the place is nnequalled by any Springs in the Western country. An enterprising man could not fail to make a fortune out of these Springs in a few years. We hope they will be leased by a gentleman of taste and spirit, who will make them such a place of resort for health and recreation as Louisville re-

The Paroquet Springs were analyzed by Prof. landell, a few years since, and were reported by him to contain carbonio acid and snlphnsotted hydrogen gases, chlorides of sodium, calcium, and magnesium, sulphates of soda, magnesia and lime, and carbonates of lime and magnesia. In composition, Prof. Y, states that they have a close re semblance to the Harrowgate Springs of England.

Great Conflagration!

DREADFUL CALAMITY! $100,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY BURNED 1

We clip the following from a paper published a apoleon, Ark., the scene of the conflagration: About two o'clock on the morning of the 26th, fire was discovered issuing from the large, elegant, and commodious store-house of J. W. Cheatham & Co., which bad just been completed at a cost of five thousand dollars, with a large and heavy stock of Groceries, Wines, Liquors, &c., which had just been received from the Eastern cities, together with all his books, notes, accounts, &c., comprising in all a loss of over twenty thus and dollars, with in all a loss of over twenty thousand dollars, with but two thousand dollars insurance. The blow to this enterprising firm is indeed distressing; the elgant establishment they had so recently ere of handcomely arranged, and so beautifully up—and which but yesterday was regarded with so much pride and admiration by our citizens, is now a heap of mouldering ruins. Thus, at one fell blow has the unremitting and untiring industry of years been swept away, and a business sec-ond to none in the State of Arkansas almost en-tirely destroyed. Nothing is left them save the indomitable energy and perseverance which has so long characterized them, through the force of which they have surmounted so many obstacles and difficulties. Let their friends come up like men, and at least settle their honest dobts, and we predict that the house of J. W. Chestham & Co. will again be established on a sound and pormanent footing. The flames rapidly spread, and soon de-stroyed the store house of Col. C. A. Stuart, whose loss is about seventeen hundred dollars; no insurance. The block of buildings immediately adjacent to Col. C. A Stuart, and bolonging to Dr. J. C. Burris, at the time occupied by Mayson and Britt, Dr. McMullin, Dr. Kline, and Dr. Burris, were also consumed.

The firm of Mayson & Britt were tirely covered by insurance. Dr. McMullin's loss is but small; and Dr. Kline's less, we have been told, is over two thousand dollars; no insurance. Dr. J. C. Burris, next to J. W. Cheatham & Cc., insured. The Dr. bears his loss, we are glad to see, with all the calmness and stoicism of a philo-sopher. Cheatham & Co., and Dr. Burris, have already contracted for the building of large and elegant brick houses. The house of Dr. Knight, occupied by Richard Mack, together with the houses belonging to Leavitt's heirs, and occupied by James Abbot as a restaurant, the tavern stand belonging to Pierce B. Gracie, and occupied by Patrick Gilderoy, also the store house of Jackson, Smith & Co., and owned by Dr. Knight, all swept away by the devouring element. Dr. Knight's loss is about $4,500. The loss of Smith & Co. is thousand dollars. The whole town would have been destroyed, had not the wind fortunately changed. Our whole community deeply sympa-thized with the unfortunate sufferers. The cause thized with the unfortunate sufferers. The cause of the calamity is, beyond doubt, attributable to lightning; many evidences of this fact can be ad-

To the Public OF THE UNITED STATES!

As advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, lately published, as I suppose, for the protection of his Schie-dam Schnapps against connterfeiters, has come under my observation; and, being ergaged in the manufacture of Schiedam Schna; ps, were I to let it pass without notice, I might be considered among those he denominates "Parates and Venders of Poisson." But the immense patronage and success that has attended the sale of the arti-le manufactured by me, and the opinion of competent judges as to its qualities as a beverage and its medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the idea that I am included among those he designs to impugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to all since min; has been brought into competition with his. Not only have I succeeded in competing with him in quality, but the constant and increasing demand for my article will soon satisfy him that his caution to the citizens of the "Sonthern and Western States" will avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The haracter of my Schiefam Schnapps is too well estab ons publication. The motive of his advertisement is obvious to every one, and feeling well satisfied that all such missiles thrown at me by him will fail harmless at my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public, publish my Copy Eight, entered in the Southern District of New York, on the 28th of December, 1864

The word Schierlan Schnappe is derived from a town in Holland, called "Shiedam," which is ee chrated as a place of extensive juniper plantations and numerous istilleries of the above article, which has been known as Schnapps 's for centuries. Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful for U.W.

the new State.

Mr. Cass—I will answer the Senator if he says he don't know; if he does not say that, I have no further answer to make. [Langhter.]

Mr. Seward—Well, let it go. I have no concessions to make.

Mr. Hale (to Mr. Cass)—Very well done, General. I never kne.r you to do better. [Laughter. Mr. Cass moved that the memorial be printed. Mr. Cass moved that the memorial be printed.
Messrs. Butler and Bayard opposed the motion.
Mr. Seward demanded the yeas and nays.
Mr. Cass thought it would be interesting to a great number of persons, and nrged its printing.
Mr. Douglas could not imagine what this bogus
Legislature could have to say for itself.

The subject was then laid aside, and the bounty land bill taken up.

Mr. Foot argued at length in favor of the passage of the bill, and it was then laid aside.
The Sunate then resumed the consideration of the reports upon Kansas affairs.

Mr. Geyer spoke at some length, derying the right of Congress to interfere in the Territories.

Adjourned. House .- Mr. Mace, by unanimous consent, pre ented the constitution of Kansas, together with the memorial of the Free State Legislature. On motion, the subject was referred to the Committee on Territories. Mr. Mace moved to print 10,000 copies; which was referred to the Committee on Printing.

Mr. Bingham, from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution declaring the scat claimed by B. U. Foulk, of the Sth District of Illinois, vacant, and also that the sitting member, S. Marshall, from the same State, was elected over J. B. Turney.

The consideration of the resolution was post poned.
Mr. Keltt addressed the House on Southern polics.
Mesers. Humphrey Marshall and Pringle offered resolutions, which were adopted, declaring the Cooly trade piracy, and looking to its suppression.

A destructive fire occurred last night in Baltimore street, opposite Hanover. It commenced in the four-story warehouse ecoupled in part by Carey, Howe & Co., boot and shoo dealers. Their warehouse was entirely destroyed. The stock of Carey, Howe & Co., was valued at $80,000, which was covered by insurance in this city. George A. Narder & Co., wholesale hatters, occupied the upper floors, whose stock was valued at $40,000. This was also insured. The building was owned by Jos. King, whose loss is covered by insurance. by Jos. The walls of the warehouse fell, grushing in the rear partien of the adjacent stores on both sides, ono oconpied as a carpet warehouse of Gabb, Mc-Dowell & Co., whose stock, valued at $100,000, was greatly damaged. The other warehouse was that of Wersenfeldt & Co., whelesale olothing es-tablishment, the stock in which was also much damaged. The entire loss is thought to be $200,-000. The stocks in the different stores were very heavy, and very little was saved.

George H. has more efficacy than any remedy ever offered to the afflicted. This cannot be successfully controverted, as the evidence in its favor is so strong and weighty. We will not give a long array of certificates. We will give but few, and those shall be from gentlemen high in standing and widely known, such as iton. J. R. Underwood, itev. Wm. L. Sreckinridge, Judge Ashier Graham, Jndge Wm. V. Loving, Dr. Haggard, and Dr. L. C. Forter.

Dr. PRICE'S CHRONIC SPECIFIC is the best Alterative, Tonle, and Blood Furifier ever compounded; it is adapted to care Scrofula, white Swelling, Incipent Consumption, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, General Debtinity. Rheumatism, Secondary Syphilis, Bore Eyes, and all Cutaneous Diseases, &c. REFERENCES IN PHILADELPHIA. Hon. Joseph B. Chandler, Hon. John Robbins, Jr., Hon. William H. Witte. tatement of Affairs of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Insurance Company, September 17, 1855.

From Hon. J. R. Underwood. I have seen many of Dr. Price's patients afflicted with the Scrofula, both before and after they were healed. It is certain that ulcers of the most inveterate character seemed to yield readily to his Chronic Specific. I have seen many certificates in possession of Dr. Price, bearing testimony to his entire success.

LARGE AND COMPLETE AS-

From Rev. Wm. L. Breckinridge. A servant girl in my family was afflicted with Scrofuious Sore Eyes. Notwithstanding she had medical treat ment, upon the whole she grew worse, until I feared that she would become totally blind. She was placed under Dr. Price's treatment, and to all appearances a radical cure was performed. For several months past she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or soreness of the eyes, and to be in perfect health otherwise.

As Agent of the above Solvent Company, I am pre-pared to issue policies upon most favorable terms on argoes in course of transmicsion to or from any point of Europe or America, Ilulis of Steamboats navigating he Western waters, and all descriptions of property and buildings against loss or damage by fire. Example 10 sees will be adjusted and promptly settled by me. The patronage of the public is respectfully so-cited.

From Judge Asher Graham,
(Formerly a member of the Bench of the Court of Appeals).

I have seen some of Dr. Frice's patients. They appeared to have been very much diseased, almost beyond all hopes of recovery. They now seem to be perfectly relieved.

(The American Candidate for Governor).

I have seen several of Dr. Priee's patients; amongs others, Mr. S. II. Dickerson, of Monroe co. At the time I saw him he was diseased from head to foot. The left side of his face and neck was greatly enlarged and swollen. All of the left side of his neck, breast, and rightshoulder were a mass of filthy diseases and running sores. As he would work his arms, the air would escape from deep nleers under his collar pones, causing filthy matter and blood to bubble out. The use of the probe had proved that some of these uleers extended into the bollow of the body. Mr. Dickerson put himself under Dr. Price's treatment, who administered his Ohronic thecidate and, attangeto tell, a permanent cure was effected.

FOR WASHINGTON CITY, Baltimore, Philadelphia, NEW YORK, &C. Most direct through Line for the East. BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD!

THIS GREAT WORK OF INTERand improvement (379 miles from Wheeling to Baltimore, and 408 to Washington,) was opened to the Ohio river in January, 1863, and has now been fully tested and approved, both as a freight and passenger route. This road is located in a romantic country, in solidly constructed, fully equipped, and carefully managed, and is thus rendered an attractive as well as a safe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio/Road, from Columbus to the Ohio river, near Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this route, offering, as it does, the most therough Railroad connection with the entire West. LOCISVILLE AND THE NATIONAL METROPOLIS are sold by this road, which runs direct to Washington without the delay of passing through Baltimore. It is also the only line by which bagsage can be checked to Washington from the West. At Baltimore the road makes a direct connection with the Baltimore the road makes a direct connection with the Baltimore the Philadelphia and New York, &c.

Passengers going Rast from Louisville, may proceed by steamboat to Cincinnati, and there take the Railroad to connect with this inc. or may leave Louisville by the Jeffersonville Railroad direct.

The Mail Steamers leave Louisville daily for Cincinnati, where they arrive so as to connect with the carso the Little Miamil Railroad at A. M. (or 5 r. M.,) for Co lumbus, connecting there with Central Ohio Railroad, through Newark and Zanesville to Believa, on the Ohio, opposite Benwood station, 4 miles below Wheeling. At this place the connection with the S. and O. Bailroad as made direct. By express train of this ronte, the time from Cincinnatito Railroad est han 25 hours, and to Washington less than 25 hours.

THROUGH TICKETS are sold as follows: By man it examer to Cincinnati, from Louisville to Washington, 1812; to Baltimore $17: to Philadelphia, $18; and to New York, $20.5. To be had of F. Carren, Ticket Agent, as sontheast corner of Third and Water streets, Louisville.

THROUGH TICKETS may slis be had at the office of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, on the Jeffersonville, Ohio and Mississippi, Little Miami, and Central Ohio Railroad, at the following rates: From Louisville to Washington, $18.50; to Baltimore, $17.50 Philadelphia, $18.50; to New York, $21.

So; to Baltimore, $17 50; to Philadelphia, $18 50; to New York, $3R.

At WHEELING or Benwood the passenger takes the superior cars of the B. and O. Endiread, which leave faily at 6 F. M., and Risk F. M., for Baltimore, Washington, (or Philadelphia) by close connection, arriving there in 8 or 17 hours, including stoppages. For safety speed, regularity, beauty of the connerty, and general confort, this road its second to none in the Union.

FREIGHTS—With the largest equipment of any Rafferad in the United States, the company is prepared to do an immensebnainess in the transportation of freights, which are carried with care and dispatch, and at rates as low as those of any other first class line. The road law as those of any other first class line. The road makes immediate connection at the wharves and in the streets of Baltimore with the Railroad to Philadelphia and New York, steamers of Ericason and Baltimore Steamship Company's lines, by canal and san, to New York and Boston, steamers to Norfolk, Chagleston, Bavannah, &c.
